FOOD IN AKITA

Inaniwa udon (稲庭うどん)

Inaniwa udon is an original udon from Akita. The noodle is flat.

Kiritampo (きりたんぽ)

Kiritampo is rice sticks. We put mashed rice on a stick and bake it.

Yokote yakisoba (横手焼きそば)

The noodle used in Yokote yakisoba is thicker than other yakisoba dishes.

Butter rice cake (バター餅)

Butter rice cake is much softer than original rice cake. It's from Odate City.

Hinaijidori (比内地鶏)

Hinaijidori is a brand chicken from Akita. The taste is richer than other ones.

Babahera ice cream (ババヘラアイス)

Babahera is an ice cream of strawberry and banana flavors. The shape looks like a rose.

Ramen (ラーメン)

Ramen is loved in Japan. We have many kinds of flavors such as soy source, miso, and tonkotsu.

Damakonabe (だまこ鍋)

Damako is rice balls. It's usually eaten in southern part of Akita. It's chewy and delicious!

Junsai (じゅんさい)

Junsai is aquatic plants eaten in spring and summer. It's like jelly!

It's difficult to get Halal food in Japan because of the cultural difference. So, we introduce two shops where you can buy and enjoy Halal food.

Do you know about Halal? If you don't, it's a good chance for you to learn about what Halal is. Each international student has each different cultural background. Let's learn and understand cultural differences and respect each culture.
