● Introduction of Graduates

Tamezo Narita

A graduate of the Akita Prefecture Normal School (predecessor to the Faculty of Education and Human Studies). He left more than 300 outstanding songs to the world such as "Song of the Beach" and the "Akita Prefectural Song." Surviving records show that he began seriously studying composition while attending the Akita Prefecture Normal School.

Keishi Nagi

A member of the second graduating class of the Akita University Faculty of Medicine. He continues to work as a doctor at the Saku General Hospital in Nagano Prefecture and also authors books. His works include Medical Student, which is set at the newly established Akita University Faculty of Medicine, and portrays the worries and conflicts of its main characters, 4 young medical students, and Diamond Dust, which was the winner of the 100th Akutagawa award.

Tokiko Matsuda

Educated at Akita Women's Teacher Training Institute (now Department of Education and Human Studies), Tokiko Matsuda is a well-published author and her 1966 novel "Orin Kuden", a series based on the life of her mother and the people of Arakawa mine, received the 8th Tamura Toshiko Award in 1968.

Masatatsu Abe

A graduate of the Graduate School of Engineering and Resource Science Department, Masatatsu Abe, is a true adventurer, always heading wherever his dreams may lead. Since leaving university, he has undertaken many exciting adventures, such as cycling across South America and rafting down the Amazon River. For his next adventure he is planning an expedition to the South Pole, following in the footsteps of Nobu Shirase, an Akita Prefecture-born explorer of the South Pole.
