Sound Check

This is a sound check. Do not open your test booklet. If you had any trouble hearing this recording, please raise your hand now.

You will hear someone from New Zealand talking about why Japanese students should learn about Japanese history and culture in English classes. It will be played twice. While you are listening, you can take notes in your question book (メモ用紙) or answer the questions. The questions are in English and Japanese. Read them carefully and answer them as instructed.

問題

問Ⅰ. The speaker mentions 5 examples, that are listed below (1~5) of things that a foreigner might ask a Japanese person about in two different situations: in Japan and overseas. Listen to the recording and on the answer sheet circle “J” for Japan or circle “O” for overseas.

1. how to use chopsticks
2. why Japanese people wear face masks in the street
3. why Japanese people bow and how to do it
4. what it is like to live in Japan
5. whether to tip in a restaurant

問Ⅱ. 20年間日本に滞在した後、話し手が重要だと考えていることは何か。60～80字の日本語で説明しなさい。

問Ⅲ. Do you agree or disagree with the speaker that Japanese history and culture should also be taught in English classes? Give at least 2 reasons based on your own experience of studying and using English. Your answer should be between 135 and 165 words of English.
